Special Family and Children's Savings

Support The Fight Against MS

And Get A Great Deal From Plumlee's

On September 19-20, Larry will be bicycling in the annual MS 150 bike ride. This 2 day, 150 mile event is a fund raiser to help fight multiple sclerosis. For Larry's fund raising, Plumlee Photography is offering a special gift certificate. For a $30 donation (checks payable to "The MS Society"), get a free family or children's portrait session, and one 5x7 portrait. Donations must be received by September 18, but certificates are good for sessions anytime between now and March 2010. Buy a gift certificate for yourself, or give them as gifts.

New "Small Events" Packages

Senior Citizens Fall Special

With school beginning, many of our high school seniors need afternoon and Saturday sessions. This means we have several morning openings. Now through December, get a portrait session, Tuesday-Friday at special saving. You get 1-8x10, 2-5x7's, and 30-wallets, all for just $110, including session fee. Plus save an additional 10% off additional photos. This special good for senior citizens only.

Attention Civic Groups

Need an entertaining and informative program for one of your meetings? Larry has put together a slide show of his bicycle ride across Iowa. He will present this to your group at no charge. You will enjoy seeing the many photos of over 12,000 bicycle riders as they cross rural Iowa on this annual 7 day event.

Facebook

Are you on Facebook? If so, join our groups, "Plumlee Seniors" and "Plumlee Photography". We often post specials there, and have special discounts occasionally for our Facebook friends. You can also keep up with Larry by adding him as a friend.

Larry's Summer Bicycling Adventure

In July, Larry traveled to Iowa to ride in the annual "RABBRAI", a 7-day bicycle ride across the state of Iowa. It's the largest organized bike ride in the world, drawing 12,000 to 15,000 riders.

Check out his travelogue and photos from the trip!
